Near St. Albert United States Airman Killed In Plane Crash

The pilot of a single-engine United States Army plane was killed instantly when the machine crashed near St. Albert, 10 miles northwest of the U.S. airport at about 1 p.m. Sunday.

Announcement of the fatality was made Monday by Brig.-Gen. D. W. Gaffney, commanding general of the Alaskan Air Command, U.S.A.F. Transport Command.

Name of the dead pilot is withheld pending receipt of news of the accident by his next of kin.

The machine crashed in a wheat-field and burned, while it was apparently coming in for a landing after a routine flight.

Body of the pilot was found about 200 yards from the plane.

ATTENTION TO LAND
Official announcement of the fatality stated that the pilot had taken his plane aloft again after an unsuccessful attempt to land at the base. His flight leader, who had already landed, took off again to give the other pilot assistance in coming in, but the crash occurred soon after.

An inquiry to determine cause of the crash is under way.

Plane on Ice Floe Is Floating to Sea

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin Copyright, 1944, by British United Press. MONTREAL, March 20.—A Canadian Pacific Air Lines plane with three men aboard is down on an ice floe in the eastern St. Lawrence and drifting out to sea, C.P.A. officials announced here today.

The plane, a Norseman, carrying one passenger and two crew members, was forced down on a big floe of ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence near Harrington Harbor, Que., last Tuesday night. It was located by air on Wednesday, but the crash was not until the day after.

The names of the three men in the plane, who were a Canadian high commissioner in the United Kingdom, returned to London today after his first wartime visit to the Dominion, which lasted about five weeks.

Heavy Fighting Nazis Showing Reinforcements Into Cassino

By C. R. CUNNINGHAM
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin Copyright, 1944, by British United Press. NAPLES, March 20.—The battle for Cassino continued today as fresh German reinforcements streamed into the ruined town while Allied and Nazi forces were attacking and counter-attacking through the hills to the north and west.

Tough German paratroopers held fast to their strongholds in the southwestern end of the town and the Allied commandos said the Nazis had succeeded in reinforcing their strongpoints in the rubble-strewn streets.

At the same time, other German units fought their way back into the crest of Hill 165, a small height several hundred yards west of Cassino, which gave them a perfect observation post from which to direct artillery and mortar fire down on the British.

Front reports said the Germans still had a number of tanks installed in the wreckage of Cassino's town.

Tanner Says Coal Delegation Meets Dominion Monday, April 3

The date on which Alberta's coal delegation, consisting of representatives of the government, coal operators and coal miners, will meet to discuss the coal problem is Monday, April 3, Hon. E. T. Tanner, minister of lands and mines, announced Monday.

Mr. Tanner will be a member of the delegation.

Five weeks ago the provincial legislature adopted a resolution demanding that the Dominion immediately adopt a national coal policy to insure steady work for Canadian miners, insure a market for Canadian mines, and eliminate discrimination in favor of imported coal.

The modern calls for the delegation to go east, to press for Dominion action to solve the coal problem in this province.

Mr. Tanner said that all members of the delegation have been named, but that those operators and the miners' union have indicated they will not attend.

He said that the coal subsidy paid to the Dominion is $1.25 a ton.

PREMIER MAY GO
The minister said he hopes that Premier Ernest Manning, who is expected to leave the east at the same time, will be able to attend.

Mr. Manning is expected to leave for Ottawa March 21.

With the west experiencing a mild winter, mines have been closing down due to a lack of orders.

In the Edmonton area, nine operators have indicated they will close down April 1, because of the cancellation of the coal subsidy paid by the Dominion.

New Rumanian Peace Move Seen

Katowice, Poland, March 20.—(AP)—LONDON, March 20.—Rumania's drive for a settlement with Germany to take herself out of the war.

Such a move would pose another serious problem for Germany, an increasing number already facing the United Nations. The Daily Mail, London, has reported that Rumania is sending a mission to the Soviet Union to discuss a possible settlement.

Previous Rumanian peace speculation centered around Prince Barbu Stirbey whose arrival in Cairo was reported without confirmation yesterday. But new reports from Istanbul by way of the Egyptian capital said that the prince had not yet emerged in Rumania and was trying to get to Cairo by sea.

His departure from Rumania, however, would be a serious blow to the Rumanian peace move.

Great Hordes Of Nazis Flee Before Soviets

Nazi Field Marshal Fritz Erich von Manstein's broken forces.

SWIFT MANOEUVRE

Troops of the Second Ukrainian front captured Mogilev-Podolski as a result of a swift manoeuvre by tanks and infantry. Stalin said in his order of the day describing the town as a "large rail centre and important German defence base on the Dniester."

Stalin paid tribute to troops fighting under five generals and one colonel, indicating the size of the forces Konev had massed in the Mogilev-Podolski area while the units were pressing on across the Dniester to the south.

The Red army employed its now famous surprise play to force the Germans out of Vinnytsia without a costly frontal assault. It appeared they had by-passed the city to the south to take Zimbariki and had left the German garrison only a narrow corridor for escape.

Only yesterday the Soviet units closing against Vinnytsia from the south had captured Strishakva, four miles from the big base which had lost its value except as a holdout anchor for the German salient.

IMPORTANT BASE

Before its investment Vinnytsia was of primary military value as a rail hub and industrial centre, as well as an outpost guarding the approaches to the Odessa-Lwow railroad, which long since had been cut.

Other enemy troops were entrenched firmly in the "Duke's Palace" on the south side of the Via Cassino on the north side of the highway.

More than 100 Nazis were revealed to have been killed or captured in the five-day street fight for Cassino but dispatches from the front said the embattled German garrison showed no signs of cracking.

The Germans launched six separate counterattacks against Cassino itself Sunday, but were driven back each time with heavy losses in dead and wounded. Another thrust against Cassino Hill, between Cassino and Monastery Hill, was beaten off.

SURROUND ALLIED UNIT

Only Nazi forces, however, appeared to have all but surrounded a New Zealand armored unit that broke into the Cassino railway station south of the town and poured a murderous hail of mortar and artillery fire into the station.

Blister patrol fighting continued in the lower Garigliano Valley and on the 5th Army beachhead below Rome, but there were no important changes in the opposing battle lines.

Canadian troops of the 8th Army on the Adriatic coastal front repulsed several German patrol attacks, inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy, and several enemy strong points were smashed by artillery fire.

Heavy Bombers Blast at Reich In Day Assault

By WALTER CRONKITE
Exclusive to the Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press Limited

LONDON, March 20.—Medium-sized forces of American heavy bombers smashed at southwest Germany today for the second time in three days while hundreds of lighter Allied planes battered widely-scattered targets in western Europe.

Flying Fortresses soared high over the channel to pace the daylight assault which carried the pre-invasion bombardment of the continent through its sixth day of virtually non-stop operations.

Strong forces of fighters shepherded the bombers over the continent and into southwest Germany, the section of the Reich which was rocked by the heaviest Allied blows last night.

MOSQUITO ATTACKS

Wave after wave of planes swept out over the English southeast coast for shuttle attack on the continent only a few hours after twin-engine R.A.F. Mosquitoes returned from night raids on central and western Germany without loss.

Marauder medium bombers were revealed to have blasted the railway junction of Grief, 25 miles north of Paris, this morning on the first of a series of heavy reinforcement routes to the Pas de Calais invasion coast.

R.A.F. medium bombers, Boston and Mosquitoes also bombed objectives in northern France as the party in March.

German planes struck back weakly at the British east and west coasts, and lost at least seven aircraft in the effort. A German DNB broadcast said Nazi planes started large fires in the dock area of Hull.

While some 250 bombers from Britain were attacking military installations along the French invasion coast yesterday, others from the Italian-based 15th Air Force crossed the Austrian Alps to hit the Klagfurt airdrome 150 miles southwest of Vienna and war factories at Graz, 62 miles to the north-east.

In the Mediterranean theatre, the American bombers blanketed the Klagfurt airdrome, near a Messerschmitt component factory, with bombs and scored hits on hangars, repair shops, barracks, ammunition dumps and adjacent railway yards.

Liberators rounded out yesterday's offensive from Italian bases with attacks on Yugoslav railway targets at Knin, 25 miles southeast of Zagreb, and at Metkovic, 70 miles southeast of Split.

The appointments were revealed at the same time it was announced that Lt.-Gen. H. D. G. Crerar had been appointed to command the 1st Canadian Army.

Charge City Man False Pretences

Alleged selling of a motorcycle to more than one person in Edmonton, led to the arrest Saturday night by city police of Stanley Campbell, formerly of 10128 85th Avenue. Campbell, charged with false pretences, was later released on bail.

Police went into action Saturday, after receiving reports from two persons that they had made payments on a motorcycle which, they alleged, needed some repairing before it could be delivered.

Apprehended before Magistrate A. I. Miller, K.C., Monday morning, Campbell pleaded not guilty to a charge of intoxication, but no plea was entered concerning the charge of false pretences. He was remanded in custody on both charges to March 28.

Sees Factory Hit Edmonton Flier Tells of Havoc By Big Bombs

By FRANK LOWE
LONDON, March 20.—(CPI)—Airmen from Canadian bomber group planes, out in force for Saturday night's R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. smash at the German chemical centre of Frankfurt, reported yesterday a "particularly rough" flight but were positive their bombs hit the targets.

The night was made "rough," they said, by night fighters, flak and a nest of searchlights 10 miles deep. Four Canadian planes failed to return from the night's operations, which also included an intensive mine-laying in enemy waters.

BIG BOMBS USED

In addition to the Frankfurt smash, other Canadians were in the R.A.F. squadron which helped pave the way for a special R.A.F. task force to demolish an important explosive factory at Bordeaux, France, in a precision raid in which the R.A.F. used the new 12,000-pound bomber bombs on the plant.

A description of the Bordeaux explosion was given by P.O. G. S. Milne, 1925 83 street, Edmonton, a Lancaster crew member who said "There will never be words to describe the explosion." A bomber bomb was hurled on single selected building from a high-flying aircraft while the remainder of task force unloaded high explosive and incendiaries around the remaining factory buildings.

The whole factory came up to meet its end and great chunks of the building were blown over a river a half-mile away," Milne said.

"I don't mean just bricks and girders, but huge hunks of building which we saw floating through the air from thousands of feet up."

"When the 12,000-pound Cookie hit a storage dump the whole thing went sky-high in an orange-yellow blast that lit everything for miles around for almost a minute."

Canada Exporting Surplus Industrial Alcohol to States

OTTAWA, March 20.—(CPI)—Canada exports to the United States all the industrial alcohol the Dominion does not need for its own war purposes, a revenue department official said Saturday.

The official was commenting on a Washington dispatch which quoted Senator Guy Gillette (Dem.) as saying the United States will import about 25,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol from Canada and Cuba this year.

The official here said he did not know much about alcohol Canada will export this year. He believed the amount would be considerable because of Canada's " tremendous" capacity for producing industrial alcohol.

Spices still are used to preserve food in parts of China and North Africa.

THE Miracle of Radio TOOK FORM

ABOUT 1922 came the dawn of a great new era in communications and entertainment. Suddenly the public awakened to the great new possibilities of radio. In just a few months, radio became a part of everyday life.

The Canadian Nickel industry, with its mines and plants still partially idle because of loss of wartime markets in 1918, saw an opportunity to find new markets for Canadian Nickel in the growing radio industry.

Soon Canadian Nickel was playing an unseen but vital part in millions of radio tubes and other parts of broadcasting and receiving sets.

Throughout the world. Another step had been taken in rebuilding the markets for Canadian Nickel beyond their wartime peaks.

Today Canadian Nickel is again devoted to war purposes and again the industry looks to the future with confidence. Plans are ready to develop and expand old and new peacetime markets, so that the Nickel industry may continue, through its own initiative and enterprise, to make still greater contributions to Canada's welfare.

Hitler Denies Report Reich Seeks Peace Through Sweden

STOCKHOLM, March 29.—(AP)—The Stockholm tidnings reported Saturday night that Adolf Hitler, in an exclusive telephone interview with its Berlin correspondent, denied Germany is trying to get out of the war by using Sweden as an intermediary, asserted that Russia is trying to put a noose around Finland's neck, and scoffed at any suggestion of British and American guarantees.

Army Promotion

The correspondent said he first heard of rumors that King Gustav of Sweden had been approached by Hitler to get many peace.

"The report is absolutely false," Hitler was quoted as declaring. "I don't understand why I should have talked to the Swedish King."

The report, said to have originated in London, declared that German Ambassador Otto Abetz approached the Swedish consul in Paris in February, asking his views on whether Gustav would serve as a mediator.

"NOTHING TO IT"

A Swedish foreign office spokesman said there was "nothing to it."

Asked about King Gustav's message to Finland regarding the country to accept a Russian armistice, Hitler was quoted as saying he did not know if the report was true or at any rate "it is purely a Swedish matter."

NEW YORK, March 20.—Phil Weintraub, new first-baseman of the New York Giants, would have quit baseball years ago if the game didn't have the irrefragable fascination of an ultra-beautiful girl or a drug.

Handsome Phil, best-dressed man and most widely traveled performer in baseball, will be covering about the diamond again this year, although he knows he has done right by dehydrated foods "in the industry of the future."

It seems that a large and spreading dehydrated foods company, with headquarters at Chicago, had been dependent upon Detroit air Phil to take an important brass hat job. Weintraub was in the good to become an industrial executive until he received that invitation from the New York Giants. So he told the food company that he was leaving.

As a mover-shaker, dark-eyed Phil must be 30 years old. He has been jumping about the minor and major leagues. During that period he has covered the Giants three times previously, and also served with the erstwhile Phillies and Cincinnati.

HIGH ON GIANTS

But his minor circuit movements from coast to coast would jar Marco Polo pause. Not to bore you, he merely to uphold our story we list some of the clubs with which he performed—Toledo, St. Paul, Chicago, Minneapolis, Jersey City, Rochester, Nashville, Birmingham, Indianapolis, Baltimore, Detroit, Waco and Rock Island. He doubled back on several clubs. Weintraub came in last night from the Giants' training camp at Lakewood, N.J., and we chatted with him. He was so enthusiastic about the Giants' workouts at Lakewood that it took a while to get him to discuss himself. He considers manager Mel Ott, "the most interesting and most popular" of all, and he knows that the Giants are "going places" this season.

Weintraub finally admitted that there was but one crack episode in his barnstorming baseball career—a tragedy that prevented him from playing with the Cubs of his home town, Chicago.

DISLOCATED SHOULDER

He said, "Near the end of the 1925 season, when I had been traded with Roy Parmelee from the Giants to the Cardinals for Burgess Whitehead, I was playing a night game for Rochester (of the Cards' system) at Newark.

"The Cubs were trying to make a deal to get me. Their representatives were in Newark that night. My first time at bat, I threw the ball against the center field wall, and dove into third base, dislocating my shoulder. As lay there, leaning on the ground, Ranch Ricks of the Cardinals came out of Chicago.

Weintraub says he will stay in baseball as long as he can, and he knows "let dehydrated foods do the best they can," because "I enjoyed every minute I've been in the game, and I only want to be in it instead of 36, and starting all over to do the same thing again."

Taxes, Surplus Revenue Are Expected to Equal 20 Mills at City Rate

Revenue from taxes and surpluses from the five city-owned utilities for 1944 is estimated at $1,230,000, or the equivalent of 20 mills approximately at the present tax rate, it was disclosed in the estimates for the utilities which will be submitted to a special meeting of the city council on Monday night.

I Saw Today

In addition to the equivalent of $1,230,000, it is estimated that $1,230,000 will be set aside in renewal reserve accounts during this year.

Expenditures from renewal reserves during 1944 are estimated at $1,230,000. Of this amount $200,000 will be spent by the electric light department; $600,000 by the power plant; $300,000 by the street railway department; $135,000 by the telephone department; and $105,000 by the waterworks department.

1939-1942 BALANCE

At December 31, 1943 there was a balance of $1,939,912 credit in the renewal reserve account. With the anticipated revenues for 1944 it is anticipated that during this year there will be $2,882,000 available from this account. It is proposed to add $1,230,000 in 1944 to leave a balance of $1,693,960 carried forward to next year.

It is proposed to carry out $147,000 of new construction in the city-owned utilities during 1944. This includes $78,000 in renewals and replacements. ### Hospital Patient Believed Suicide

Duncan McCallum, 78 years old, of 1077 10th avenue, was found dead in the bathroom on the third floor of an Edmonton hospital, about 10 p.m. Saturday, according to city police.

Officers stated that the man, a patient at the hospital, was found by an orderly. Death had been caused by strangulation, it was believed, as a handkerchief had been placed around his neck and then attached to a faucet on the bathtub. Both water taps had been opened. The body was removed to the morgue and the coroner's office was notified.

Water in the tub had not overflowed, police learned, and it was thought the body had not been in there long.

Dr. C. Brailwaite, chief provincial coroner, was notified, and the body was ordered removed to the morgue and the coroner's office was notified.

The sister of the deceased, Miss Ida McCallum, resides at 10747 10th avenue, it was stated.

Crane was one of five U.S. Army fliers aboard a Liberator bomber, which baled out when the machine crashed on Dec. 21 last. The other four have not yet been found. Crane's home is in Philadelphia. The airmen were all serving with the Alaskan Wing of the U.S.A.F. Transport Command.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Smiling War Wives
Heroic As SoldiersThey Laugh, Joke, and Keep Busily Occupied, To Cover Up Hearts Breaking With Loneliness
For Husband in Service

Dear Miss Dix: Did you ever tell your readers that just because many of us war wives don't go around with long, woe faces, or tears in our eyes every time we speak of our husbands, it does not mean that we have stopped caring for them?

We love our husbands and miss them just as much as the women who are pining as martyrs, but we force gaiety into our voices and actions, even when we feel like crying our hearts out because we are lonely. Yet, because of this, we are hurt by people who say to us: "Some of you married girls don't seem to miss your husbands being away. You are always laughing and joking. Don't you ever take the war seriously?" That is a stab in the back that gets us. All I can say to them is that it would be a sorry looking world if all the mothers and wives and sweethearts went up looking for sympathy and crying on each other's shoulders.

WRING WIVES.

INGORE SLURS

Answer: The babbling of fools is an affliction that none of us wish to escape, and the pity of it is that it so often is full of venom that burns us up. But we shouldn't let it do it. We should pass over the criticisms and slurs of those who lack the eyes to see, the brains to understand, and the hearts to sympathize with what others are enduring, with the contentment that they deserve.

No one whose opinion is worth considering under-estimates the courage and fortitude that is making you wives carry on so bravely on the home front as your husbands are doing on the fighting line. Those with human nature know that you laugh that you may not cry.

Today's Needlework

BY ALICE BROOKS

Answer: I am sure that you are a woman with a drinker husband, or a philanthropist, or a lay good-for-nothing fellow, but you would be glad enough to change places with a wife whose husband's only fault is that he snores.

When a wife gets up with her husband and loses her taste for the only remedy that does any good, she has to have a change of scene and air and personalities. Let her leave him and bring on her own ability. Let her try supporting herself and living in one room and having no good kind man to walk on her hand and foot. And, my word for it, she will find in love with him all over again and think snoring the sweetest music in the world.

TEEN-AGER

Dear Dorothy Dix: Do you think it wrong for a teenage girl to do things that her parents don't like? They tell her to do this and that, but we know that our parents would object if they knew. Many of the things that our parents don't like to do about it. What do you think?

Answer: Of course, it is no sin for a girl to smoke, but doctors are agreed that it is injurious to the adolescents. So, inasmuch as you haven't formed the smoking habit and there is a lack of interest for the boys in the service, why don't you give up from this point of your war sacrifices?

Anyway, if you are going to smoke, as she is, don't do it secretly, worse to deceive your parents and do things that they disapprove of behind their backs than it is to smoke.

I would classify sinus trouble as a disease of the educated. It seems to occur most frequently among those doing professional work or among those having the intelligence to start and run a business of their own. Judging from the many thousands of letters I receive, sinus trouble is most likely to develop among those earning their bread with their brains rather than their hands. Probably the lack of exercise and lack of fresh air and sunlight accompanying brain work is a contributing cause in producing the lowered resistance which makes sinus trouble possible.

Inflammation of a sinus, or sinusitis, appears to be more prevalent than formerly; however, some of the apparent increase is due to the fact that sinusitis is now better diagnosed. For this reason many cases which formerly would have been overlooked, or would have been called neuritis, are now properly diagnosed as sinus trouble.

The nasal tissues are made up of hollow spaces within the bones of the skull. These air-filled spaces make the skull lighter in weight and also make the speaking voice more resonant.

The various cavities have received specialized names, but they are all connected with the inside of the nose by small openings through which drainage takes place. A continuation of the mucous membrane lining the nose also lines the sinus cavities and the mucus normally secreted in small amounts by the membrane readily drains away through the small exits provided.

A good way to form a mental picture of the nose and its related cavities is to form a picture of several small caves which open off the inside of the nasal chamber.

As a general rule, sinus trouble follows an acute cold, with the infectious process extending along the mucous membrane and thus reaching the inside of the sinus. Acute sinusitis usually runs its course within a short time, with healing occurring spontaneously; however, when the resistance is markedly low and when the patient has a tendency to chronic catarrh, a chronic sinusitis may develop which is not likely to clear up by itself.

The basic causes of chronic sinus trouble are the same as those producing lowered resistance to chronic catarrh. The patient removes those causes that he may expect lasting improvement. The systemic treatment is the same that would be used for overcoming catarrh and consists of the use of a short fast, the use of a restricted diet, bathing, increased elimination through the use of enemas, and the securing of exercise out of doors.

There is considerable reason to believe that lack of vitamin A may help to produce sinus trouble and the patient is therefore advised to obtain the vitamin either through the use of foods supplying it or in some other way. It has often been noted that those obtaining plenty of sunshine and fresh air have less sinus trouble than those doing without these essentials. I therefore suggest that the patient try to obtain sunshine—if this is impossible, then a substitute treatment given with the ultra violet ray generator is of value.

In most cases of sinus trouble, local treatment may prove helpful in establishing better drainage. The combination of systemic and local treatment will be all that is necessary usually in bringing the sinus cavity back to normal.

2 Police Officers Arrive at Coast To Escort Accused

VICTORIA, March 20.—(CP)—Two New York city police department detectives arrived Saturday in connection with the case of Ralph M. Wilby, 39, charged with grand larceny involving $276,000.

The two men will escort Wilby to New York if authority is given in court; court here Monday when an extradition hearing is scheduled.

Wilby was assistant treasurer of the William F. Knott Co. Inc., operators of 15 department stores in the United States. Wilby, a native of Canada, was arrested here March 12 and charged on 11 grand larceny counts.

Revenue From Utilities Likely To Be $1,126,000

meters are items listed in the renewal and maintenance work contemplated.

POWER PLANT WORK

The only expenditure contemplated in the power plant is the continuation of the work on the water treatment plant, construction of which commenced last year. It is proposed to expend $600,000 on this project. The initial estimated expenditure was $800,000.

In the street railway department it is proposed to spend $204,810. Of this amount $20,000 will be spent on a loop at 103 street and Whyte avenue. This project calls for the removal of steel rails east of the portion of the street from the paving and boulevarding of which the lines are lifted.

Rehabilitation of rolling stock is estimated to cost $120,000; car wheels, gears and axles will cost an estimated $8,900; rehabilitation of trolley coaches $2,000, and new tires $12,000.

The purchase of eight new trolley coaches will cost the department $170,000. It is anticipated that these coaches will be delivered about April 1, according to advices received from the manufacturers.

REPLACEMENT WORK

Track and line replacements to be undertaken will cost $61,210, and $35,100 will be spent at the car barns for alterations and improvements to the shop buildings.

In the telephone department $108,805 will be spent on various extensions. These include the installation of a 300-line addition to the central office equipment in the main exchange to cost $27,449; a 200-line addition to central office equipment at the West End exchange, costing $28,056; while new telephones, switchboards and miscellaneous equipment is estimated to cost $45,000.

The erection of a new main exchange building on 100 street and 102 avenue as an addition to the existing structure, at an estimated cost of $120,000 is recommended, but it is proposed that only $40,000

"I just had my wife's hat sent to me—it's less trouble!"

be expended on this year in 1944, construction this year is estimated. The waterworks department now to cost approximately $105,000. Of this amount, $30,000 is earmarked for renewals, and $40,000 for new construction of mains, services and meters.

FUNNY BUSINESS

Alterations in the supply main in connection with the new water treatment plant to be completed by this department will cost $35,000.

In the engineer's department it is proposed to spend $200,300 on new construction. Of this, $33,000 is for walks and crossings; $40,000 for grading, travelling, boulevards and curbs; $88,000 for paving at selected locations, and $10,600 for replacing the existing timber bridge at 65 street and Jasper avenue with earth fill, having a temporary asphalt surface and the landscaping of the adjoining park area.

Sewer and drainage work to be undertaken by the engineer's department will cost approximately $70,385. Included in this work is a relief sewer on 112 street and 86 avenue in connection with the University hospital extension.

Completion of landscaping and roadways at the administration building at the airport is estimated to cost $4,633, and enlargement of the sale ring at the exhibition grounds, $2,500. It is proposed to expend $10,500 for a bulldozer, and $1,745 for portable electric welding equipment and air compressor.

Incomplete estimates for the civic departments would indicate that the commissioners are budgeting for a decrease of $23,900 in 1944 compared with the actual expenditures of 1943. This year it is proposed to expend $1,528,965 in the different departments. In 1943 the actual expenditures were $1,551,965.44.

While no official figures are available it was learned in well informed civic circles that there will be a surplus of approximately $14,000 on the 1943 operations.

The commissioners expect that revenue from the different departments will be $800,000 approximately lower than that of 1943. Last year revenue from the departments amounted to $467,820.78. In 1944 the anticipated revenue is set at $408,500.

Probe Blaze

OTTAWA, March 20.—(CP)—Police and fire department officials began an investigation Saturday of a fire which they said had been set deliberately to one of the outside doors of a large tenement row on 2000 Murray street early Saturday morning.

Flier, Dangling in Fouled 'Chute, Drops to Death as 80,000 Watch

POOL, Eng., March 20.—(CP)—Crowds of shoppers in this southeast English coastal city of 80,000 watched horror-stricken Saturday as a huge British transport plane circled over the harbor with a 25-year-old lieutenant dangling helplessly in the shrouds of a parachute under the fuselage.

The young officer died shortly after the plane had swooped low over the harbor and he had dropped into the water.

The chute apparently had become entangled in the door as he jumped.

As the plane circled the town shop assistants left their counters, hives deserted their kitchens, and traffic was paralyzed while thousands watched the drama in the sky.

The man swung back and forth, and now and again whirled round and round," said one woman.

From a school playground boys picked the plane, left across the harbor by two miles with speed reduced as much as possible. A launch with a physician aboard watched the lieutenant up within a few minutes after he fell. He died before he reached shore. His name and the reason for the parachute jump were not disclosed.
